

Nuclear Disarmament: Continuum of Action

Awareness	Involvement	Leadership
Educate yourself on nuclear weapons. www.ipjc.org/links/NuclearWeaponsPrimer.pdf	Share your knowledge with your church, school or work.	Organize a group viewing and discussion of the documentary, The Forgotten Bomb (Bud Ryan, 2010).
Learn what your religious tradition has to say about nuclear weapons. www.wagingpeacetoday.blogspot.com	Organize a study group to watch and discuss the film, Conviction . (available for loan from IPJC)	Visit www.psr.com and under the nuclear weapons resources section, download the petition supporting the Humanitarian Threats of Nuclear Weapons and gather signatures.
Learn about current US nuclear production and testing. Find the nearest nuclear production/waste storage site in your area. www.ucsusa.org	Invite a speaker from a nuclear disarmament organization to speak at a church, school or community event.	Sponsor and organize an event for Disarmament Week (Oct. 24-30) or International Day of Peace (Sept. 21).
Learn about the consequences of US nuclear weapon use in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. www.hiroshima-remembered.com	Participate in an observance of remembrance on the anniversaries: August 6 & 9, 1945.	Organize a prayer service for the victims on the anniversary of the bombings (Aug 6 & 9).
Read Today is Not a Good Day for War by David Krieger.	Join an organization that promotes techniques of nonviolence. www.forusa.org www.gzcenter.org	Take a public vow of nonviolence. www.paxchristiusa.org
Research US foreign policy and international treaties, i.e., Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty, Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty and the New Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty.	Learn about the Smarter Approach to Nuclear Expenditures Act (SANE). Monitor legislation and contact members of Congress.	Partner with others in a campaign opposing nuclear weapon production and testing. www.wagingpeace.org
Explore policies for a world free from nuclear weapons. www.fcnl.org	Sign the petition demanding zero nuclear weapons at www.globalzero.org	Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper about the need for a nuclear-free world.
Learn the connection between production of nuclear power and nuclear weapons.	Join an email action alert. www.psr.org	Attend or testify at a public hearing regarding the site of a new nuclear reactor.
Find out if you hold stock in any companies involved in nuclear power or weapons. www.corpwatch.org	Join responsible investor coalitions that file shareholder resolutions. www.iccr.org	Vote your shareholder proxy on military weapons. See the Top 100 contractors at www.washingtontechnology.com

