

IPJC Justice Cafés

Create spaces where young adults committed to social justice can:

- © BUILD COMMUNITY
with young adults regionally and nationally
- © ACT FOR JUSTICE
explore issues of global and local concern and act together for justice
- © DEEPEN SPIRITUALITY
make connections between spirituality and justice

IPJC Justice Cafe Hosts

- © Collaborate with IPJC to create these spaces in communities across the country
- © Utilize tools and resources provided by IPJC for a successful Justice Café
- © Commit to the guiding principles of IPJC Justice Cafés
- © Consult IPJC as needed

Who is IPJC?

The Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center promotes just structures in our Church and world. We are sponsored by 16 religious communities and collaborate with Catholic, ecumenical, interfaith and other groups in carrying out this mission.

We serve parish, communities, organizations, and individuals through:

Workshops • Retreats • Publications
Immersions • Conferences
Community Organizing
Corporate Responsibility

Intercommunity Peace & Justice Center

a collaborative venture of sponsoring communities:
Dominican Sisters of Adrian • Oregon Province Jesuits
Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary,
U.S. Ontario Province • Sisters of Providence, Mother Joseph
Province • Sisters of St. Francis of Philadelphia
Sisters of St. Joseph of Peace • Tacoma Dominicans affiliate communities: Benedictine Sisters of Cottonwood, Idaho
Benedictine Sisters of Lacey • Benedictine Sisters of Mt. Angel Religious of the Sacred Heart • Sinsinawa Dominicans • Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary • Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet
Sisters of St. Mary of Oregon • Ursuline Sisters of the Roman Union

1216 NE 65th ST • Seattle, WA 98115

206.223.1138 • ipjc@ipjc.org

www.ipjc.org

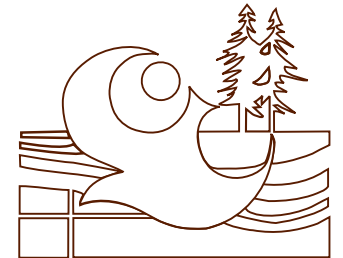

COMMUNITY BUILDING

JUSTICE

SPIRITUALITY

YOUNG ADULTS

A Program of the Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center

IPJC Justice Café Experience

- ☉ Meet other young adults at a Justice Café held in your community during the 3rd week of the month
- ☉ Visit the web hub before and after your Justice Café to reflect and explore the topic
- ☉ Interact online with other Justice Cafés in your region and nationwide
- ☉ Join a growing national movement of young adults acting together for justice

IPJC Justice Café Process

- 1 Get a beverage or snack and get to know other participants
- 2 Use the conversation starters provided
- 3 Break open your experiences in one-to-one or small group conversations
- 4 Reflect on any spiritual aspects or connections to issue
- 5 Deepen understandings within the larger group and identify potential justice actions
- 6 Continue the conversation online and at the next Justice Café

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed it is the only thing that ever has.”

– Margaret Mead

IPJC Justice Café Purpose

Gather young adults to:

- ☉ Engage in conversation on issues of global concern
- ☉ Connect young adults regionally and nationally
- ☉ Consider how people in spiritual/faith communities can engage the issue
- ☉ Act together for justice

IPJC Justice Café

Web Hub

www.ipjcjusticecafe.ning.com

Featuring:

- ☉ Ongoing dialogue and social networking
- ☉ Interaction between Justice Cafés regionally and nationally
- ☉ Schedule of upcoming Justice Cafés and e-invitation system
- ☉ Reflection questions and topic introductions
- ☉ Monthly host kit for download, including discussion guide
- ☉ Resources, links and action suggestions
- ☉ Easy account setup enables access to discussion forums and online chat