Join a growing movement of young adults acting together for justice!

The IPJC Justice Café Process

- ▶ Build community with other young adults at a Justice Café held in your area each month.
- ▶ Have a beverage or a snack and get to know the other participants
- ▶ Use conversation starters to get the discussion going
- ▶ Break open your experiences in one-to-one or small group conversations
- ▶ Bring a reflective or spiritual perspective to the issue
- ▶ Deepen understanding of the issue within the larger group and identify potential justice actions
- ▶ Continue the conversation at the next Justice Café with other Cafés online at www.facebook.com/groups/justicecafe

Justice Café Hosts

- ▶ Collaborate with IPJC to create these spaces in communities across the country and world
- ▶ Utilize tools and resources provided by IPJC for a successful Justice Café
- ▶ Commit to the guiding principles of IPJC Justice Cafés
- ▶ Consult IPJC as needed
- ▶ To host a Justice Café in your community, email ipjc@ipjc.org
