

Nuclear Disarmament: Continuum of Action

Awareness	Involvement	Leadership
Educate yourself on nuclear weapons. www.ipjc.org/NuclearWeaponsPrimer.pdf	Organize a group viewing and discussion of the free video, Nuclear Weapons and the Human Race . www.wagingpeace.org	Share your knowledge with your church, school or work.
Learn what your religious tradition has to say about nuclear weapons. www.zeronukes.org	Organize a study group. Watch and discuss, Conviction . (available at IPJC)	Draft a corporate stand or social practice statement on nuclear disarmament.
Learn about current US nuclear production and testing. Find the nearest nuclear production/waste storage site in your area. www.ananuclear.org	Invite a speaker from a nuclear disarmament organization to speak at a church, school or community event.	Sponsor and organize a witnessing event for Disarmament Week (Oct. 24-30) or International Day of Peace (Sept. 21) or any day you choose.
Learn about the consequences of US nuclear weapon use in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. www.hiroshima-remembered.com	Participate in a prayer service for the victims on the anniversary, August 6 & 9, 1945.	Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper.
Read, Today is Not a Good Day for War by David Krieger. Explore policies for a world free from nuclear weapons. www.fcnl.org	Join an organization that promotes techniques of nonviolence. www.paxchristiusa.org www.forusa.org www.gzcenter.org	Take a public vow of nonviolence.
Research US foreign policy and international treaties, i.e., Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty, Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty, and Strategic Arms Limitation Talks.	Learn about The New Nuclear Weapons Complex Transformation. Monitor legislation and contact members of Congress.	Partner with others in a campaign opposing nuclear weapon production and testing. www.fairfulsecurity.org
Study the effects of depleted uranium weapons on military personnel, civilians and the environment.	Invite a speaker on this topic to a church, school or community event. www.psr.org	Join a group working on this issue. www.wagingpeace.org
Learn the connection between production of nuclear power and nuclear weapons.	Join an email action alert. www.psr.org	Attend or testify at a public hearing on the site of a new nuclear reactor.
Find out if you hold stock in any companies involved in nuclear power or weapons.	Join responsible investor coalitions and file shareholder resolutions. www.iccr.org	Attend and vote at your shareholders meeting.

