Looking for a program to help build community?

Want to deepen your spirituality through the lens of social justice?

The Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center is happy to bring you the Justice Café! A free resource for groups that acts as a process for having meaningful conversations about the issues affecting our world.

Using the Justice Café, you can...

- Build community with young adults
- Interact on social media with other Justice Cafés in your region and worldwide
- Engage in conversation on issues of global concern
- Join a growing international movement of young adults acting together for justice!

2019-2020 TOPICS

- Root Causes of Migration
- Feminization of Poverty
- Ethical Consumerism
- Modern Day Slavery: Children
- Plastics
- Just Transportation
- Changing Face of Democracy
The Justice Café Process

- Have a beverage or a snack and get to know the other participants
- Use conversation starters to get the discussion going
- Break open your experiences in one-to-one or small group conversations
- Bring a reflective or spiritual perspective to the issue
- Deepen understandings of the issue within the larger group and identify potential justice actions
- Continue the conversation with other Cafés online at www.facebook.com/groups/justicecafe

“Another world is not only possible, she is on her way. On a quiet day I can hear her breathing.” —Arundhati Roy

Suggestions for how to use the Justice Café:

- To build community with young adults and explore issues of global and local concern
- Invite members of your community into a reflective space
- To make connections between spirituality and justice and act together for justice

To host a Justice Café in your community, contact IPJC at ipjc@ipjc.org

Justice Cafés are a program of the Intercommunity Peace & Justice Center. For more info, visit ipjc.org