

Modern Slavery: In My Backyard?

St. Patrick Church

2702 Broadway E, Seattle, WA 98102

Thursday, February 6, 2020

7:00 pm–8:30 pm

Is there really human trafficking in Seattle? Join us for a panel discussion with experts from several fields to learn about the realities of human trafficking and find out how you can be part of eliminating trafficking in our city.

FEATURING NARRATIVES OF TRAFFICKING FROM:

Tanya Fernandez

Education Director for Seattle Against Slavery

Detective Megan Bruneau Zentner

Human Trafficking Detective for the Seattle Police Department

Velma Veloria

Director of Advocacy and Mobilization for Equity in Education Coalition

Dannie Nemes

Anti-Trafficking advocate and Community Organizer with API Chaya

Phuc “Billy” Huynh

Core survivor-leader in API Chaya’s human trafficking survivor group

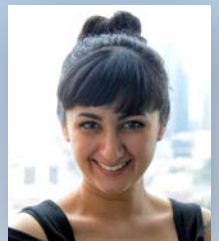

Sr. Judy Byron, OP

IPJC Program Director and NWCRI Director

SPONSORED BY

Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center
For more information contact ipjc@ipjc.org

PANEL

Tanya Fernandez

Velma Veloria

Intercommunity
Peace & Justice Center